| Job title: | Lecturer in Economics |
| Reports to: | Head of Curriculum |
| Business area: | A Levels |
| Responsibility for others: | Yes/No |

Job purpose:

To teach A Level Business and Economics and to contribute to the development and organisations of the curriculum as a member of the A Levels team.

To contribute to the provision of an excellent learner experience to students and secure good retention and achievement for the students

To monitor student progress as a personal tutor to a group of A Level students

The following list is intended to give an indication of the range of duties and responsibilities attached to the post and does not attempt to specify all aspects of the role.

Main duties and responsibilities:

Teaching & Learning

To effectively produce and manage every learner's individual learning plan to ensure that they achieve their highest potential.

To positively engage all learners within classes using a range of effective techniques; allowing no learner to 'opt out'.

To compile and effectively manage group profiles, including the provision for learners with an additional learning support need.

To produce, publish and manage effective and complete programme delivery plans (including signposted resources / presentations / materials) for all classes, which are relevant to each group's needs, in advance of the programme start.

To ensure that support staff are effectively briefed prior to the start of each session, so that group and individual learning can be maximised.

To ensure that teaching is always positive, engaging, stimulating, effective and progress focussed for all individuals and groups, and is designed to re-engage and enthuse every learner.

To consistently deploy effective and positive behaviour management strategies that have been approved by the College management team.

To provide information regarding learner progress to meet the needs of those requesting, using approved channels, in a timely fashion.

To provide every learner with frequent, regular and effective progress feedback on work produced in class, and work completed outside of class.

To ensure that timely interventions are taken up by all learners (within the post-holder's remit) who require them.

To ensure that attendance to classes remains at or above the College target and to deploy effective attendance management strategies where issues arise.

To fully engage with all necessary College systems, including (and not limited to) web registers, ProMonitor, email, ProSolution.

To ensure that all learners have an appropriate examination / assessment plan in place for all components of their qualification, including providing the necessary evidence for examination concessions.

To work as a positive and proactive member of the wider teams, fully supporting colleagues and managers alike.

To set clear and well understood targets and communicate the highest expectations of each learner within the post-holder's teaching remit.

To engage positively with performance management processes, including attendance to team meetings, 1:1 meetings and other associated processes.

Planning and Development

Ensure appropriate plans and resources are available, for example, the required planning documents are completed and full lesson planning is available, to enable classes to be covered in the absence of the postholder.

Develop high-quality, learning materials.

Contribute to the development of the curriculum by discussions with the Course Coordinator.

Participate in the marketing, recruitment and selection, and enrolment of students.

Quality, Performance, and Improvement

Contribute to the setting and achievement of targets and take responsibility for the achievement of course related targets, utilising college systems such as ProMonitor to track progress.

Actively participate in whole college and area specific approaches to improving teaching and learning including the Teaching and Learning Strategy.

To supply complete, accurate and timely student data as required by the College and funding agencies including timely completion of registers, enrolments and student withdrawals.

Use College information systems to access and provide data and information, for example to support student progress and inform management decisions.

Take part in quality improvement processes as required by the College.

Organise, administer and maintain student files/records according to the requirements of the College.

Student Experience

Promote student progress, engagement and achievement, and ensure a high-quality student experience.

Participate in student induction, tutorial, assessment, recording and review processes, including the completion of appropriate records using the designated College systems.

Provide information, advice and guidance, and academic and pastoral support to students as appropriate.

Provide support to and encourage positive behaviours of learners and groups of learners. This may include those with particularly challenging behaviours.

Take part in interview evenings and open events as required.

Personal & Professional Development

Participate actively in the College's performance and development review programme and undertake appropriate staff development activities that support personal development and fulfil the corporate objectives and values of the Group.

Undertake appropriate learning and development including any academic, vocational and professional updating, and legal compliance training relevant to the post which fulfils the objectives of the Group.

Participate in a minimum of 30 hours (pro rata for part time) per year learning development.

Responsibilities of all employees within the Heart of Yorkshire Education Group:

- Undertake a proactive approach to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of all students, ensuring personal compliance with all Group policy and procedure relating to the safeguarding of students.
- Be alert to any indication or allegation of abuse and take appropriate action, as necessary.
- Committed to upholding British Values, celebrating equality and diversity, and maintaining a culture of respect and tolerance.
- Celebrate and value the diversity brought to our workforce by individuals, providing positive role models and an all-inclusive approach.
- Act in accordance with data protection legislation.
- Participate in team meetings and development opportunities as identified.
- Ensure the health and safety of students, staff, and resources within their scope of responsibility.
- Ensure risk assessments are undertaken, updated, and submitted in line with Group policy.
- Undertake appropriate learning and development, to the equivalent of at least 30 hours (pro rata) each year.
- Ensure students receive a positive introduction into Group life through involvement in all identified aspects of the enrolment process.

Our Values:

Our values act as the moral compass for our organisation. They encapsulate the way we do things, how we behave and how we make our decisions. These are the values we stand behind
